

CRP280

Center connection plate with latchable door

The CRP280 is a lockable door for assembly to cable reels, allowing safe storage of cable ends and connectors during transport. It can be assembled to CDM310 and CDM380 cable reel types and is constructed of solid steel and fitted with a slam lock.

